HARVEY AGRICULTURAL SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Dear Class of 1978,

Again I wish to commend Year Twelve on the production of a Year Book. That you should wish to have such a memento of your school life, is indicative of the spirit and cohesive nature of your group.

I congratulate you all on the contribution you have made to the school over the last five years. You have not only maintained, but you have built on to, what I see as the best traditions of this school. From all who have had the pleasure of association with you, I wish you every success for your future careers.

Best of luck and good wishes,

J.D. Jewell

ADDRESS TO THE NATION 1978

In but a very short time our five year reign of fear and terror throughout H.A.S.H.S. will come to a dramatic conclusion.

All too soon we will be thrust into the unknown, to wreak havoc, further our careers and generally have a good time (not necessarily in that order).

Once again our teachers' abilities will be put to the test. Shall we proceed to gather the rewards of the limitless knowledge which they have imparted to us? (or suffer a nervous breakdown through lack of it?!) MEM 2

Seriously, they have performed a fantastic feat. Although we were nothing extraordinary to begin with, they have moulded us into the ultimate, perfect individuals which we now are.

Despite the infinite odds against their success, our teachers have strived to make something of us, and, with our help, have succeeded. It was they who helped us realize that the world needs more than just doctors and lawyers. The world needs nuclear physicists, and sandologists (beach bums). The world needs us!

It was they who started us on the pathway to success and for that we thank them.

With fellow students whom we leave behind, we sympathize. We leave a hard trail to follow and you must not be discouraged by the knowledge that you can only ever be second best. Remember always that the world needs indians as well as chiefs.

With this mere grain of sand from the beaches of our minds we must leave you —

The Great, from '78.
